Grüner Veltliner

AXPOINT Federspiel 2021

Highly refined, spicy-mineral bouquet, keep's its promise on the palate; cool fruit spice, coniferous forest, ripe stone fruit and sweet-peppery motifs; considerable substance for a Federspiel, compact, multilayered; elegant, delicate salty finish.

{Weinprofessor Bernulf Bruckner}

SOIL

The location Axpoin lies at the foot of the famous single vineyard Singerriedel. It is the best of all gently sloping surfaces in Spitz. Built from weathering rock with a little clay, sand, black soil and loess accumulations, the cauldron-shaped terrain makes it particularly suitable for Grüner Veltliner, which become very juicy and opulent while always maintaining a delicate minerality on the finish.
